Sharing Vision – the future of church

Dear Archbishop Cushley

I enclose an account of the day we held on March 14th. The day was, as you already are aware from a previous letter, marked by a love, energy and enthusiasm for the church and an optimism for its future in our Archdiocese. Yet there was also great anxiety over the way the reorganisation was beginning, with a desire for this energy to be used, and for insights from the laity and from Evangelii Gaudium to permeate it.

I do invite you to look at the website, <http://tinyurl.com/mwcbpfp> for this brief account cannot capture all that has since been collated.

I am also taking this opportunity to pass on a copy of an article I wrote before the above event, which gives personal reflections on the current times in the Church - "Building a monoculture?"

With kind regards,
Yours in Christ,

Mike Mineter
